Read the passage carefully.

Toby was a creature that lived in Happy Woods. He loved to play with his friends, Rabbit and Chicken. Once, he played together with them. His sharp, needle-like hair pricked Rabbit's leg and it started bleeding.

Toby felt bad. He decided to stop playing with his friends so that he would not hurt them. Tears rolled down his cheeks as he thought about his ugly, useless, needle-like hair. He wished he had fur like Rabbit and feathers like Chicken.

One day, Toby watched his friends playing near the bushes. Just then, a wolf crept out slowly. Realising that his friends were in danger, he sprang at the wolf. His needle-like hair poked right into the wolf's body. The wolf cried out in pain and scurried off.

"Thank you for saving our lives!" said his friends gratefully. Toby was glad that he could help his friends. It was then that he realised that his needle-like hair had a special purpose. He could protect himself and his friends from danger.
