Read the passage carefully. Choose the correct answer and write its number (1, 2, 3 or 4) in the brackets provided.

There was once a man who kept ten monkeys as pets as he was very fond of them. Every morning, the monkeys would climb up and down the trees or swing from one branch to another in his backyard. After that, he would feed them bananas.

One morning, the man said to the monkeys, "We have very few bananas left today. For breakfest, I shall give each of you two bananas and four for dinner."

When the monkeys heard that, they looked very unhappy. They refused to take the banarias that the man was handing out to them.

"Very well, then. You shall have four bananas in the morning and two for dinner," the man said.

The monkeys looked at one another. They jumped up and down happily, nodding their heads. They took the big, yellow bananas from the man and started eating.

4 Cherry Lane

Green Meadow Woods

Singapore 454545

12 July 2004

Dear Animal Friends of Green Meadow Woods.

Tortoise and I are going to have a race at 3.00 p.m. tomorrow. We will start our race at the foot of Bukit Timah Hill. The finish line will be at the top of the hill. Fox has agreed to be our judge.

Please wait for us at the finish line. I am sure it will be a very exciting race for Tortoise and me. Of course, everyone knows that I can run faster than Tortoise. I am still amazed that Tortoise wants to challenge me to a race. Tortoise will need all of you to cheer him on after I have reached the goal. After the race, he may need some of you to comfort him. We all know how slow he really is.

I may even take a nap while poor Tortoise creeps along! It will be easy to overtake him whenever I wake up. This race is going to be fun. I just cannot wait for tomorrow to come!

Yours sincerely,

Hare
