Comprehension Passage (10 marks)

Read the passage below carefully and answer the following questions.

Stretched across the doorway was a large spider web. A grey spider was waving a leg at Wilbur in a friendly greeting. "I'm Charlotte," she greeted.

A fly that had been crawling along Wilbur's trough had flown up and blundered into the lower part of Charlotte's web and was tangled in the sticky threads. It was beating its wings furiously, trying to break loose and free itself.

5

Wilbur watched in horror as Charlotte wrapped the fly. "There!" said Charlotte. She bit the fly. "He'll make a perfect breakfast for me."

"You mean you eat flies?" gasped Wilbur.

"I am not entirely happy about my diet of flies and bugs. A spider has to pick up a living, and I happen to be a trapper. I naturally build a web and trap insects. And furthermore," said Charlotte, "do you realise that if I didn't catch bugs and eat them, they would increase and multiply and destroy the earth?"

10

"Really?" said Wilbur. "I wouldn't want that to happen. Perhaps your web is a good thing after all."

Wilbur lay down in his sty. He was tired from his sleepless night and from the excitement of meeting someone for the first time. "Well," he thought, "I've got a new friend. But I'm not sure how good a friend. Charlotte is fierce, brutal, scheming, bloodthirsty — every thing I don't like. How can I learn to like her?"

15

Wilbur was merely suffering the doubts and fears that often go with finding a new friend. In time, he was to discover that he was mistaken about Charlotte. Undereath her rather bold and cruel exterior, she had a kind heart, and she was to prove loyal and true to the very end.
