This booklet consists of 3 printed pages including this page.

Read this passage carefully. Then answer the questions that follow.

Jimmy enjoys going to the park with his grandfather. One evening, his grandfather took him to a new park that was a little further from their home. They had to walk a longer distance to get there. Jimmy did not mind as he liked walking with his grandfather.

As they walked along the pavement, Jimmy's grandfather reminded him to be careful and look out for cars. Jimmy felt safe because his grandfather was holding his hand tightly.

At the park, his grandfather sat and watched him play on the slide. Soon, it was time to go home. Jimmy's grandfather waved to him and he immediately stopped playing. He ran to his grandfather and they walked home together.
