Section B – Comprehension Open (5 marks)

Your answers must be based on the passage.

One evening, Lucky was out walking around his neighbourhood when he spotted a mouse in a field. Lucky knew he would get into trouble if he went too far from home but the field was just nearby. Therefore, Lucky decided to give chase to the tiny squeaky creature he had spotted earlier.

Lucky was so busy chasing the mouse that he did not hear his owner, Mrs Lim, calling him for dinner.

“Well,” said Mrs Lim. “This is very strange. Lucky always comes home for dinner. Something must have happened to Lucky.”

Mrs Lim put on her slippers and went in the direction of the field calling for Lucky at the top of her lungs. Still, Lucky did not hear her. He was so busy with the chase that he had forgotten all about his dinner. In fact, he had forgotten about everything else too.

Suddenly, Mrs Lim saw something moving among the bushes in the field. She went over to see if Lucky was there. In the bushes, Lucky was just getting ready for a final pounce on the mouse when he saw Mrs Lim. Lucky knew that he had no choice but to forgo his final battle. Mrs Lim gave Lucky a stern glare and warned him not to wander off again.

Hanging his head low, Lucky purred softly. It was as if to promise Mrs Lim that he would not misbehave again.
