peaceful	brilliant	famous	generous	dull
shiny	thrifty	ugly	quick	long

Once there lived a poor but happy shoemaker who would sing lovely songs while he worked. However, the shoemaker's neighbour, a rich man, did not like his songs. The shoemaker sang late into the night and disturbed the rich man's sleep.

"What can I do to make the shoemaker stop singing?" the rich man wondered for a very (6) _____ time.

One day, the rich man thought of a (7) _____ plan. He called for the shoemaker and presented him with a bag full of (8) _____ gold coins. The shoemaker was very surprised, but happily took the sparkling gold coins home.

"How (9) _____ of my good neighbour!" the shoemaker smiled as he stored the gold coins in his cupboard. However, he kept worrying that somebody might steal his precious gold coins. From that day onwards, he stopped singing!

"Finally, I can sleep soundly! It is so (10) _____," the rich man sighed as he snuggled into bed.

Passage 2 (5 x 1 mark)

Read the following poem carefully and fill in the blanks with the correct form of verb.

I Didn't Dare Go

An alien lived for a long while inside my closet drawers.

He (11) _____ (beg) me

to visit planets with him,

to fly to unknown moons with him.

But I didn't dare go.

He (12) _____ (keep) me awake,

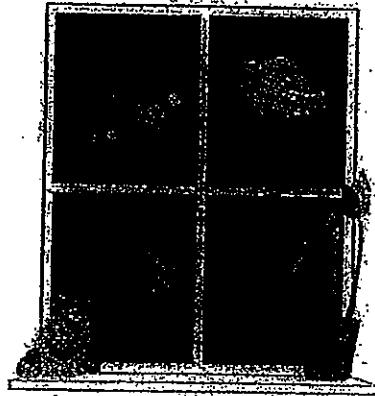

telling me about places I'd never seen.

He chattered on all night and (13) _____ (tell) me adventure stories, and how we could dance on the stars.

But I didn't dare go.

He (14) _____ (leap) from the darkness and grumbled.

His eyeball rolled then stared.

He whispered that the time had come,

I must get out of bed,

Must trust in things beyond the sun.

I thought for awhile.

Then, I decided "I will go!"

I will visit the planets and (15) _____ to unknown moons with him.

I will dance on the stars and trust in things beyond the sun.
