Section L : Comprehension (5 × 2 m)

Read the following passage carefully and then answer the questions.

Linda and Lizzie

Linda and Lizzie are twins. They are seven years old and are in Primary One. They are in the same class. Linda and Lizzie do almost everything together. They also have the same hobbies. They like reading and dancing.

Linda looks like Lizzie and Lizzie looks like Linda. Teachers cannot tell Lizzie from Linda. Teachers always say, "Both of you look like each other! This is confusing." Linda and Lizzie laugh.

One day, their father tells their mother to get one of them a different haircut, so that people will not be confused. Linda and Lizzie are unhappy. The girls do not want to look different.

Luckily for them, their mother does not want to cut their hair differently. The girls are happy just the way they are. Their father just shakes his head. Their teachers will have to stay confused.
