Read the passage carefully and answer the questions in complete sentences.

Little Mouse was pleased and happy. He had found a nice big chunk of cheese in the rice field near his home. The cheese looked quite tasty and fresh to eat. Little Mouse realised that he needed to quickly get the cheese back to his home, before any other animal came by. He wanted to have the cheese to eat all for himself.

On the way home, Little Mouse saw Mr Fox in the distance. He stopped and remained still in the long grass. He held on tightly to his chunk of cheese, until Mr Fox went by. Then Little Mouse hurried on to get home.

As Little Mouse was hurrying home, he saw Mr Crow up on the branch of a tree. Little Mouse stopped again. He knew that Mr Crow could easily swoop down and snatch the chunk of cheese if Mr Crow were to see it. Little Mouse hid the chunk of cheese behind a big stone and waited for Mr Crow to fly away. Later, when Little Mouse saw Mr Crow fly off, he grabbed the chunk of cheese and hurried back to his home.
