Section D: Comprehension (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

Leo, the lion, was the king of the jungle. One day, he became sick and had to stay in his cave for weeks. All the animals in the jungle were sad when they heard that he was not getting better.

Tigo, the tiger, felt that Leo should not be the king anymore because he had become weak. He gathered all the animals and told them that he was the new king. No one dared to say anything. They were just too afraid because Tigo was fierce and strong. However, they told him that he should tell Leo that there was a new king.

Soon, Tigo reached Leo's cave and the sick lion invited him in. "Come closer, Tigo. I am not well and I can't see you. Are you scared of me?" Leo asked.

"Scared of a weak lion? Of course not! I have come to tell you that I am the new king," Tigo replied proudly.

"How dare you! There can only be one king and that would be me. I may be weak but my friend is not," Leo roared angrily. Suddenly, an elephant appeared. It attacked Tigo and frightened him away.
