Section B (5 marks)

Comprehension (MCQ)

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once, there was a young boy. He had no family except for his animal, an old sheep. Each day, the boy and his sheep would walk many miles, looking for a home. Each night, they would curl up together and slept.

Sheep,

One starry evening, the old sheep died. The boy buried his friend next to an icy stream. Then, he sat under a tree and cried. He had no family and no home. The boy cried for a long time. There was no one to comfort him.

Suddenly, the sky filled with bright light. The boy held his breath. He was afraid to move. One bright star fell to the ground. Slowly, the star took the shape of the old sheep. She bent her head and drank from the stream. She looked at the boy and smiled. As she jumped back into the sky, bits of wool fell. As the sun began to rise, the boy picked up the soft, warm wool. It glowed in his hands like starlight. He carried the wool to the city and sold it. With the money, he bought a house and two young sheep. He never forgot the star sheep. He was never lonely again.

Adapted from 'The Star Llama & Other Stories'

For each question from 16 to 20, four options are given. One of them is the correct answer. Make your choice (1, 2, 3 or 4). Shade the correct oval (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the Optical Answer Sheet.

Mr Bok owns a popular bakery. When an earthquake happened in China, he wanted to help raise funds for the (21) _____ (victims, patients, witnesses). He created buns that showed expressions of shock to reflect their pain. However, his customers were (22) _____ (pleased, unhappy, delighted) about the buns. Many of them came forward and (23) _____ (praised, admired, complained) that Mr Bok was insensitive and that they felt upset eating a bun with a shocked expression.

Fill in the blanks with the most suitable word in the brackets.

Last Sunday, I was shopping in a store during the sale season. The store was (24) _____ (empty, crowded, complete). I (25) _____ (heard, sniffed, noticed) a man behaving in a suspicious manner. He was walking very fast and kept looking over his (26) _____ (head, back, shoulder) nervously. Suddenly, I heard a scream. Before I could react, the suspicious man broke into a run and started pushing everyone in his way. (27) _____ (Luckily, Strangely, Unfortunately), the security guard was alert and stopped him. Later, I learnt that the man had pickpocketed an old lady.

Singapore is a (28) _____ (dirty, clean, polluted) and green city. There is hardly litter anywhere. As part of the 'green' campaign, Singaporeans are encouraged to bring their own shopping bags to the supermarket (29) _____ (all, any, every) first Wednesday of the month. This is to (30) _____ (prevent, promote, discourage) recycling so that we will use fewer bags. So, remember to do your part for the environment.

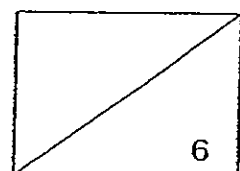

Section B (6 marks)

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the words in the brackets.

A few months ago, my school held a carnival to raise funds for charity. My classmates and I (31) _____ (be) very excited. After days of discussions with our teacher, we (32) _____ (decide) to set up a games stall.

The big day arrived. There was a carnival-like atmosphere with many brightly-decorated stalls. The Bouncy Castle was popular with the younger children. They (33) _____ (jump) up and down in excitement when they heard a cry for help. A little girl had fallen off the castle! Fortunately, I (34) _____ (see) a teacher helping the little girl. Later, I went to a stall where you (35) _____ (can) get your face painted for only a dollar!

After the carnival, our principal spoke to all the pupils and congratulated us on our hard work. She said, "You have done a good job this year. I hope that all of you (36) _____ (participate) actively in the carnival again next year."

Comprehension (Open-ended)

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once, there was a monk who bought a beautiful tea kettle. He filled it with water. He was about to set it on the flames when the kettle cried out, "Too hot! Too hot!"

The monk was frightened out of his wits. He quickly gave the kettle away to a poor man. 5

That night, the poor man was awakened from his slumber. He heard a scratching noise. The kettle had grown a head, four legs and a tail! It said, "I am called the Tea Kettle of Good Luck. I am actually a squirrel in disguise."

The tea kettle performed acrobatics for the people. The news of the amazing kettle spread far and wide. The shows were always packed. 10

The poor man had become wealthy. He said to the kettle, "You have certainly earned your name 'Tea Kettle of Good Luck'."

The next day, the poor man went to the monk. He gave him half of his money and the kettle. He said, "It is to you that I owe this fortune. Thank you." 15

The monk placed the kettle on a special shelf. It was his treasure.
