Section H: Comprehension Open-Ended (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions in complete sentences. Your answers must be based on the passage read.

Remember to use the comprehension strategies and skills you have learnt.

Once upon a time there was a little rabbit whose name was Peter. He lived with his mother in a burrow, under the root of a very big tree.

"My dear," said old Mrs Rabbit one morning, "you may go into the fields but don't go into Mr Gregor's garden. Now run along, and don't get into mischief. I am going out."

5

However, Peter ran straight away to Mr Gregor's garden and squeezed under the gate! First he ate some lettuces and some beans. Then, he ate some radishes. Out of the blue, he saw Mr Gregor! Mr Gregor was on his hands and knees, planting cabbages, but he jumped up and ran after Peter, waving a rake and shouting, "Stop thief!" Peter was so frightened that he rushed all over the garden and could not find the way back to the gate. He lost both his shoes among the cabbages. Alas! As he ran, his large buttons on his jacket got caught in the cabbages. He took off his jacket and rushed into the garden shed. Mr Gregor went after Peter and searched for him frantically. Peter, who was underneath a flowerpot, sneezed. "Kertyschoo!" he went.

10

Mr Gregor tried to put his foot upon Peter, who jumped out of a window, knocking over three plants. The window was too small for Mr Gregor, and he was tired of running after Peter. Mr Gregor decided to hang up the little jacket and the shoes on a scarecrow to frighten the blackbirds. Peter ran into the bushes and when he saw the gate, he dashed towards it as quickly as he could. Peter never stopped running till he got home to the big tree. His mother, who was busy cooking, wondered what he had done with his clothes. It was the second little jacket and pair of shoes that Peter had lost in a fortnight!
